Location:

Conveniently located in the College of Law at the Sakhir Campus, it supports the students and faculty of the College of Law, as well as serving legal enterprises in the Kingdom of Bahrain. The first of its kind in the Kingdom of Bahrain.

Collection:

The collection and services provided by the library aim to increase awareness of legal matters within the Bahraini society.

The Library holds a large number of resources and reference materials. Subjects range among the different subdivisions of law including civil law, commercial law, constitutional law, administrative law, public international law, private international law, and the personal status law. Journals, magazines and newspapers relating to law are located in a special section in the library.

With resources like the Arab Network of Legal Information, the Law Library provides users with modern tools for accessing the latest information from the field of law.

Services:

The library's services include borrowing, photocopying, special reading areas, and information literacy programmes.
